PROFILE SUMMARY

Aspiring Java Full Stack Developer seeking to leverage strong programming skills and passion for creating dynamic web application. Dedicated to mastering both front end and back-end technologies to contribute to innovative and impactful projects.

TECHNICAL SKILLS

Languages: Java, Hibernate, Servlet, JSP, HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript, ReactJs Spring Boot

Applications: MS Office, GitHub
Servers: Apache, Tomcat
Database: Mysql, SQL

Technical Projects   :)

Employee Management System:

I have developed an Employee Management System project using Core Java and JDBC. This system likely allows you to efficiently store, retrieve, and manage employee information within a database, offering features such as adding new employees, updating their details, and generating reports or queries related to employee data.

Book Store:

I have successfully created a Book Store project using Servlets, JSP (JavaServer Pages), and Hibernate. This project likely allows users to browse, search, and purchase books online, with Hibernate handling the database interactions for efficient data management.
